

William Crimando, Ph.D.
One Page Vitae

Personal

Date and Place of Birth: December 9, 1947—Detroit, MI
Present Home Address: 1711 Colonial Dr., Carbondale, IL
Present University Department or Unit: Rehabilitation Administration and Services, Rehabilitation Institute

Education

Ph. D. Counseling, Michigan State University 1980

Professional And Teaching Experience

Southern Illinois University

Assistant Professor August, 1980—July, 1984
Associate Professor with Tenure July, 1984—April, 1988
Full Professor and Coordinator, RAS April, 1988—Present

Teaching and Training Grants

1.5 million + in training grants from Rehabilitation Services Administration in Job Development and Placement, and Rehabilitation Administration

Papers and Presentations at Professional Meetings

50+ papers and presentations at national and state meetings on topics related to rehabilitation administration and leadership, computers and accessibility, staff training, and job placement.

Publications

6 Books, including

Crimando, W., & Riggan, T.F. (2005). Community resources: A guide for human service workers. Long Grove, IL: Waveland.

Schmidt, M.J., Riggan, T.F., Crimando, W., & Bordieri, J.E. (1992). Staffing for success: A guide for health and human service professionals. Newbury Park, CA: Sage.

Crimando, W., & Riggan, T.F. (1990). Staff training: An annotated review of literature. New York: Garland.

70+ Articles in Professional Journals and Chapters in Books, including

Lehmann, I. S., & Crimando, W. (2004). Veiled barriers: Pre-employment testing and disability. Journal of Rehabilitation Administration, 28, 11–22.

Crimando, W., Flowers, C., & Riggan, T. F. (2004). Theory-based e-learning: Using theory to enhance the success and retention of students in distance learning programs. Rehabilitation Education, 18, 185–195.

Crimando, W., Riggan, T. F., Flowers, C., & Bernard, T. (2003). NCRE faculty and grants: Experiences and beliefs. Rehabilitation Education, 17, 33–43.